

ITALY

Packing Guide

Wardrobe

Italians are stylish and look polished no matter the occasion. Leave casual and sporty clothing at home unless you are doing outdoor activities.

- Day & Night Dresses
- Shirts
- Bottoms
 - Jeans, Trousers, Skirts
- Accessories
 - Jewelry
 - Daily purse
 - Belts
- Comfortable Walking Shoes
- Undergarments
- Pajamas

Seasonal Activities

Italy is cold from late October to early April. The rainiest seasons are October–November & March–April.

- Sunscreen
- Sunhat
- Towel
- Swimsuit & Cover-Up
- Sandals
- Sunglasses
- Hiking shoes
- Coat
- Rain jacket

Personal Care

Most accommodations provide basic products for showering, so you can leave heavy bottles at home. Also leave hair appliances at home, as the power wattage difference can easily blow circuits.

- Makeup & Remover
- Tweezers, Nail Clippers, Scissors
- Small Reusable Bottles (Shampoo, Cond., Soap)
- Hair Brush
- Shaving items
- Toothbrush, Toothpaste, & Floss
- Deodorant & Perfume
- Hygiene Products

Tech, Documents, & Extras

Italy has plug types C, F & L, for which most universal adapters will work. Have a portable charger to stay connected while out and about.

- Laptop & Chargers
- Camera & Bag
- Universal Outlet Adapter
- Portable Charger
- Visa/Entry Documents
- Passport
- Medication
